

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION

Cold Write

COLD WRITE – THE GIFT

- Write a paragraph about a great gift that you have received.
- What exactly did it look like?
- Or what exactly did it do?
- You need to put in lots of details!

COLD WRITE - WEAK

The best gift I ever got was a new bike. It was black with silver writing. It was a mountain bike. I liked it a lot. My parents bought it.

COLD WRITE - BETTER

The best gift I ever got was a new bike. It was black and had silver writing. It was a mountain bike with full suspension.

I rode that bike everywhere. My parents bought the bike for my birthday.

COLD WRITE - GREAT

The best gift I ever got was a new bike. It was matte black with silver writing on the frame and had chrome wheels. It was a mountain bike with full suspension, even in the seat, which gave it a nice smooth ride. I rode that bike everywhere, from the steepest backcountry drops and most rugged trails I could find, to the streets around town. My parents knew that I wanted that bike badly, so they bought it for me on my fourteenth birthday.

COLD WRITE – THE GIFT

- Choose your gift
- What did it look like?
- What did it do?
- Why did you want it?
- How did you feel when you received it?
- How did you feel when you used it?

∴ Dive
Deeper

Expanded noun phrases

Simile

Metaphor

Personification

COLD WRITE – THE GIFT

- Reread your work.
- Edit sense, punctuation and vocabulary.
- Proofread for spelling errors.

∴ Dive
Deeper

Expanded noun phrases

Simile

Metaphor

Personification