

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION

Writing the Description

ARMADA PORTRAIT ELIZABETH I

- Purpose – make her seem grand, beautiful and powerful.
- Choose effective vocabulary!
- Passive voice
- Expanded Noun Phrases
- USE YOUR PLAN!!

The background of the slide is a classical painting of a woman, likely a queen, wearing a voluminous yellow dress with a pattern of small orange and green flowers. She has a pale face and is looking slightly to the side. The painting is set against a dark, moody background with some architectural elements visible on the right.

EDITING AND IMPROVING

- Have you used passive voice?
- Have you used expanded noun phrases?
- Is your description flattering, and worthy of a queen?
- Have you chosen the most effective vocabulary?
- Proofreading – underline 5 words to check and correct the spelling.
