Last summer there was a drowt in our county, because there wasn't enuff rain in the winter. It was a tuff time, and we all thort that it was going to last forever. We all bort bottles of water, and farmers struggled to plou the fields as the soil was so tuff.

People were affected too. My dad got a terrible coff, and when my cousin got the hiccupps, we didn't have enuff water for her to drink. Throo the summer, we fort against our need to water our garden, and had to watch our plants shrivel up. Eventhow it was difficult, we all thort of things that we could do to help each other.

Finally, the rain came! The farmers could fill up the troffs in the fields for the animals, the bous on the trees filled with leaves and we could all give our gardens a thoruh water...
